

Call for Papers

Warsaw School of Applied Linguistics, Poland

announces the 7th International Conference "Dialogue of Languages and Cultures"

to be held November 14-15, 2018 at our University

The seventh International Multidisciplinary Conference aims at exploring the theme of "Dialogue of Languages and Cultures" by examining the issue of Innovations, Successes and Projects in the fields of Translation Studies and Language Teaching. We would like to encourage all academics interested in the realm of linguistics, translation studies and language teaching methodology to contribute their papers pertaining to the following areas:

1. Teaching Translation
2. Terminology and Lexicography
3. Innovations and New Trends in Language Teaching
4. Translation as a form of Intercultural Communication
5. Literary and Cultural Studies
6. Anthropo-linguistics

Paper presentations will revolve around the above topics, depending on the contents of the submissions. Proposals for workshops, panel discussions and other sessions are welcome.

Organizers and contact information:

Conference email: konferencja@lingwistyka.edu.pl

More information on the conference, accommodation, publications, as well as the registration form, etc. is provided in the enclosure attached herewith.

Abstracts, or any requests for further information regarding the conference should be directed to konferencja@lingwistyka.edu.pl.

Participants who will need a VAT invoice are kindly requested to fill in the form provided together with the registration form (see website).

Best regards,

Anna Jaroch, PhD

Warsaw School of Applied Linguistics
ajaroch@lingwistyka.edu.pl

tel.: (0-22) 886-50-12/ 13/ 15

fax.: (0-22) 886-50-14